

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY

Department of Music

SAXOPHONE DAY MARCH 26, 2017
DETROIT, MI

College of Fine, Performing and Communication Arts

Join us for our 2nd Annual Saxophone Day @ Wayne State University on March 26, 2016. This event is open to any and all area high school saxophonists with a passion for improvement in their saxophone playing abilities. Some of the many exciting events for the day are listed below:

- Vandoren Clinic – How Reeds Are Made w/ Dr. Matthew Younglove
 - Jazz Clinic w/ Professor Chris Collins
 - Guest Artist Jean-Michel Goury – professor of saxophone at the Conservatoire National de Musique de Boulogne-Billancourt in Paris will present a recital with pianist Yves Josset
 - Masterclasses w/ Dr. Younglove and Prof. Goury
 - Large Saxophone Ensemble (rehearsal and performance)
 - Product trials with area vendors
- Events are subject to change

Cost: Registration is $30. Every registered student receives an event t-shirt and a pizza lunch (those with dietary restrictions, please email the event coordinator in advance of the event day). Registration includes participation in all events. Auditor passes are $10 and allow entrance to all events, but does not include participation. The evening concert is free and open to the public.

Masterclass participation: If you are interested in performing a work from the standard saxophone repertoire in the masterclass, please be sure to indicate it on the registration form. A pianist will be provided. Pre-existing quartets are welcome to apply. Registration forms are at the link below. Registration deadline: March 18, 2017.

<https://forms.wayne.edu/587e2cf633f95>

