The Department of Music currently enrolls over 300 students in seven undergraduate and five graduate concentrations. Our students, faculty and guest artists present more than 100 performances each year ranging from on-campus recitals to international music competitions. All performances are open to the public and many are free.

For as little as $25, you can support our renowned programs and you and your guest(s) will receive free admission to all campus concerts for one year, as well as half price at Mondays at The Max with WSU! To join Friends of Music, visit music.wayne.edu

MONDAYS AT THE MAX WITH WAYNE STATE

In cooperation with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Department of Music is pleased to announce our Fall 2015 season of “Mondays at The Max with Wayne State,” a concert series featuring premier WSU student ensembles at the Max M. Fisher Music Center. All concerts begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Music Box at the Max M. Fisher Music Center, 3711 Woodward Avenue, Detroit. Tickets are $15 for adults and $10 for students. Friends of Music, DSO Civic Youth Ensemble families and WSU students (with OneCard) receive a 50% discount.
